

GENERAL DENTIST - REGISTRATION

National Dental Examining Board of Canada - Certificate Process

Requirements

- Web-based self-assessment
- Application form
- Assessment of:
 - Fundamental Knowledge
 - Clinical Skills
 - Clinical Judgment
- Additional courses (if required)

+

National Dental Examining Board Examinations

- Written
- Objective Structured Clinical

National Dental Examining Board of Canada
DECISION

National Dental Examining Board of Canada
CERTIFICATE GRANTED

National Dental Examining Board of Canada
CERTIFICATE NOT GRANTED

➔ OTHER OPTIONS

Application - Alberta Dental Association and College

Requirements

- Copy of National Dental Examining Board of Canada - Certificate
- Certified copy of birth certificate, passport, citizenship card or proof of permanent residency status, or a certified copy of the authorization issued by Citizenship and Immigration Canada which permits you to engage in the practice of dentistry in Canada.
- A Vulnerable Sector Check and a Criminal Record Check (performed within the last 12 months). Applicants are responsible for all fees and charged by the police to obtain these records.
- Official transcripts from each post-secondary institution related to dental education (sent directly from educational institution)
- Certified or notarized copies of degrees/diplomas earned
- Three(3) character references (signed, dated and submitted with application)
- Letter of Good Standing and/or Certificate of Good Standing (directly from regulatory body)
- Completed - Consent(s) for Release of Information
- Passport-sized photograph (2" high x 1 1/2" wide)
- Proof of continuing education (if currently in practice and have been in practice for two (2) years or more)
- Completed - Application for Registration as General Dentist

Alberta Dental Association and College - Ethics and Jurisprudence Examination
When your application file has been completed you will be contacted to write the Alberta Dental Association and College Ethics and Jurisprudence Examination

Registration - Alberta Dental Association and College

Practice Permit
Renewed Annually